Dedication

We, The Class of Nineteen Hundred and Ninety-Two would like to dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Richard A. Jensen, our yearbook advisor and friend.

Mr. Jensen has done more for us as a class than most students know. If it was not for Mr. Jensen's endurance and willpower to bear with us, we would not have a yearbook. With all of the obstacles we encountered, he stayed right with us. If we had a problem, he would always be there to see what he could do to help. Mr. Jensen was always very open minded. If the Sagitta staff had a new idea, "Jensen" would give us all of the room that we needed to experiment, and hopefully succeed.

We owe this man a great deal, for what he has done for us as the graduating class. Rightfully so, we would like to dedicate this yearbook to him with all of the thanks we can give.

-The Class of Nineteen Hundred and Ninety-Two.

Appreciation

A Farewell Message

"High school is a stepping stone into the real world. Your basic values and personality have been developed. You are well prepared to pursue the path of your choice. Each of you has the potential to fulfill your dreams. Through your cooperation, interaction, and your camaraderie, skills which make living in this world that much easier, you have showed us that you are all team players. We will miss working with you. We are proud of each one of you and what you stand for. We hope you will always hold your heads high and feel free to use your leadership qualities."

-Dr. Norah Lusigan

-Mrs. Jan Potter

We the class of Nineteen Hundred and Ninety-Two, would like to express our greatest appreciation for the work that Mrs. Janice Potter and Dr. Norah Lusigan have done for us.

We thank them for their support through our four years of high school. They both welcomed us as the freshman class with open arms and minds. They stood behind us through our toughest times in the high school. They both helped us with all of our class projects each year: Four years of Suffield on the Green, the Sophomore ring committee, our Junior Candy drive, our Senior magazine sale, and most of all, our Junior and Senior Semi-Formals, and the Junior and Senior Proms.

We will be forever grateful for all of their help through the years. Most of all we are very grateful for their watching over us as we grew.

-The Class of Nineteen Hundred and Ninety-Two.

Teacher of the Year

The 1991-1992 Suffield Teacher of the Year is Mrs. Leslie G. Mancuso.

Since coming to Suffield in 1985, Mrs. Mancuso has taught sixth grade math and computer science at McAlister Middle School. During that time, she has also acted as team leader and Math Consultant.

To Mrs. Mancuso, the most exciting part of teaching is always the students. "I never fail to be impressed with their capacity to reason and communicate mathematically", says Mrs. Mancuso. She is accepting of the variety of ways that diverse students learn mathematics. According to Mari Murie, Connecticut State Mathematics Consultant, "she has used her skills to develop an exemplary mathematics environment for her students at Suffield . . . Mrs. Mancuso's dedication to the improvement of instruction in Connecticut is to be commended . . . She is held in the highest esteem wherever and whenever she works with fellow educators."

There are several projects on which Mrs. Mancuso is presently working. One is the design of a math record keeping system with criterion referenced tests for grades 5-8. Recently, Mrs. Mancuso was selected to attend a conference "Leading Mathematics Education to the 21st Century" where she spoke on critical math reform. In 1991, Mrs. Mancuso was nominated for a Presidential Award for Excellence in Science and Mathematics Teaching.

Many changes have been brought about through Mrs. Mancuso's efforts in Suffield. Students have benefitted greatly from the depth of her knowledge as well as her warm and caring nature.

Congratulations on being selected as the 1990-1991 Suffield Teacher of the Year!

Welcome . . . Mr. Pitocco !

The Suffield High School community would like to welcome our new Principal, Mr. Robert Pitocco, to our school.

In the short time that he has been with us, his ingenuity and leadership have been both evident and uplifting.

We look forward to Mr. Pitocco's continued presence at Suffield High School as an indicator of better things to come.

Good Luck to Mr. Pitocco, and we hope that his stay at Suffield High School is a long and productive one!

"Although our overall record did not reflect a large amount of success, I feel content with everyone's performance. We have three seniors that will graduate and the remaining members, plus possibly a few more will return. No doubt, if the attitude to win exists in the players minds, then next year will be one of the best."

-Tim Taillefer, Team Captain

Below- Tony Bartley hands off to Justin Dew.

Boys Varsity Track

"Every season our track team seems to get a little bit better. There's a great future for the team."

-Rudy Walford

My name is CARLOS MEDINA. I am from Bolivia, and my city is called Oruro. I am from a large family of five brothers and three sisters. I'm taking my last year of high school at Suffield High School. I am living with a nice family, the McCormick's, and I think my experience began with my first day of class when I found myself very confused here in America. Although I am a little shy, I found a lot of friends. Everyone here is friendly, especially the teachers and the members of the A.F.S. club.

My name is DANIEL BOCHERT. I am from Germany. I come from a fairly small family. I only have one sister. I am a junior at Suffield High School. School is very different here as opposed to Germany. In Germany, my school has about 1500 students and our whole grade is based on our test grades. We do have homework but it is not graded.

My name is GEIR KARLSON. I am from Norway. I find that the schools in Norway are a lot more free than here in America. My school at home is a lot like college is here. I love the sports here in America. At home, the sports clubs are separate from the school system. Here with the support of the school, there is more spirit during the games. I love America!

My name is FERNANDO PINEDA. I am from Spain. I plan to return to my country in June. The reason why I came here is to learn the language and the culture. I have found this totally different . . . the school and the people. You have more time to study and it is not so hard. In Spain, I started school at 9:30 A.M. and I finished at 6:00 P.M. We don't have much time to do anything else than study. On weekends, we spend more time out of home because there are a lot more things to do. Madrid is the place to go. The only thing that is hard is staying away from your family for so long, especially during the holidays.

Christopher Wesley Allen

leaves his friends lots of good times. I leave Marie lots of laughs, many rides home, and a demonic album (love that chanting). To Dan I leave all my drawings he hates, assorted weird noises, and innumerable "Flesh" quotes. I entrust my artistic skill to Matt. To Jeff P. I leave all my athletic abilities 'cause he needs them. To TNT, I leave meteoroid drawings and lots of comedy. And to Suffield High I leave all my books, bad grades, and gratitude for a decent education.

Mark Maselli Autorino

leaves to Val Ewers his love and friendship wherever life may lead her; the fond memories of all our great times together, and a "thanks" for each of the millions of ways she has helped me. I'll never forget you, Val. To Jeff P., a better appreciation of Martial Arts, unhealthy food, and girls in malls. To Chris A., a "thanks" for being such a good friend and putting up with my idiosyncrasies. Oh, nice tie! To Kris J., memories of adult conversations. To Frank P., a "thanks" for giving me a chance and showing me what I could achieve, as well as lots of VOLUME! And to Eileen B., wherever she goes, his admiration, and a sense of hope.

Lori Elizabeth Beneski

leaves D.B. lots of luck in the next two years, a warning that the speed limit is 55- so be careful, and a pile of sweatshirts which I've stolen throughout the years. C.H. thank you's for always being there, best of luck with your man, memories of driving lessons on Hale Street, and Bermuda sunburns. K.M. an "Uncle Wiggly" board game and advice that "if you can't stand the heat- go in the water". C.D. a tea-soaked washcloth and best wishes. S.E. Sunapee remembrances, concert times with 2 A.M. barbecues, a challenge to a "fair" game of Battleship, and Cape Cod pictures. S.S. memories of Ft. Lauderdale, a night drive around town in the Blazer with no lights on, a copy of our Freshman research project, and the best of luck. To C.C. and R.J. thank you's for being good friends and wishes for the best. And last, J.K., all my love, heart, and soul, a bottle of Mountain Dew, a fuzzy panda blanket, a back scratch, a bottle of Pina Colada Mousse, a photo of a black Grand National, and a promise to never say goodbye.

Todd Christopher Berger

leaves his golf clubs to C.M., and a speeding ticket in Ellington to Mr. Thomas. He also leaves his golf position to B.L. To S.S. he leaves 4 tickets to go see the Rocky Horror Picture Show. To K.D. a good friendship and a good time as a Senior; also his Mazda truck if he learns how to drive a standard. To J.M. all the girls from Maryland. He also leaves his love and friendship to S.K., and the hope that they last a long time as very good friends; also his Physics notes. And last but not least, he leaves good memories to all of his friends.

Lisa Anne Bikowski

Shawn William Santasiere

leaves a hair cut to every person C.L. fights, a Baby Ruth to T.H., a speech impediment card for B.G., a Pepsi for J.C., a subscription to every gun and car magazine for T.T., a tall, dark, handsome man that will treat J.M. right. A doctor for all of "Ruby Red Injuries". A small car to S., "I've changed" to J.Y..

Daniel Harold Shawn Sapiezna

leaves all his goals, a pillow, a stolen bag from Dartmouth, the juice, bet, and all the times, to Pino. Leaves G.R. Jenn and Julie, the night over S.C.'s house, all the walking, the video game ay Chi-Chi's, the Chi-Chi's bathroom, a broom and vacuum, the night of C.C., and my future, my ALL-STATE shirt, his boxers I borrowed, to D.M. He leaves Haines an ice cube, a Dartmouth shirt, and waffles, leaves Duno our room, all my old girlfriends, a S.H.S. mug, tag team, the bike ride to the movies, crash, and my old G.T., leaves Tam his shorts he's never giving back, leaves the soccer team my ball hogging, leaves Sandra all his love, you made my last two years the most important years of my life, twenty dollars she thinks I stole, Mrs. Dew's card she ruined, my smelly shoes, my laundry, ESOTERIC, Jimmy shut up, I scored two now we can talk, But most of all he leaves her never.

Kelly Irene Savie

leaves a real vegetable cart and some "swider" man memories to Juice and a new car, maybe this one will have manners. Kelly gives C.B. some guts to go after her dream man. And a mirror for J.H. so that she can watch herself eat. To H.O. she retires her Trick-or-Treating days and curlier treacheries. And to her brother Keith she leaves fond memories of cleaning rooms and W.W. Nintendo. To D.C. she buys a Friendly's sundae. And to J.R. some girl who doesn't think of him as a brother. To J.B. Scooby-Doo cartoons. To C.D. she leaves a real man; likewise for J.L. To N.R. Kelly leaves her phone number and twizzler for the triple he hit in 1991. Remember? Finally she leaves Big D 103 to Ron.

Whose little round belly I could hold in my hand, who grew into a toddler. When you learned to walk, you would come to my hands for safety. Before long you were clutching onto my leg for safety, while I cooked your meals. As a little boy, on your own adventures, you would run to me to kiss your scrapes and bruises. In your childhood, my lap became your evening seat for warmth. As an adolescent, you truly listened to my wisdom, and as a young adult, you allowed me to be your friend. As you grow into a young man today, I find myself holding onto your hands for safety, and I sometimes clutch onto your arm for safety to ease my scrapes and bruises from life, and as I see life through your eyes, I see a whole new wisdom. In the warmth of your love, I securely let you go off to your own destiny, knowing I have tried my best, I have done my best and in my weakness, your inner strength held it together and you grew into the truest, kindest and purest of human being anyone would hope to be. The love and pride I have for you, rest deeply in the core of my existence, as I pray God's will for you always.

Prime Rib Buffet: $9.95
All You Can Eat Friday & Saturday 5PM-10PM

We've brought back our ever-popular lobster buffet. But that doesn't mean we're not still in our Prime. Because now the whole family can enjoy our great values on Lobster or Prime Rib for Lobster and Prime Rib.

And those great values
include our spectacular salad and baked potato bar, soup de jour, pasta, and fresh vegetables. Plus our all you can eat dessert bar (at a modest additional charge).

And you'll enjoy it all in the elegant, friendly atmosphere of Windsor Park, one of the area's most distinctive restaurants. So bring the whole family. Especially since children under six eat free!

Make your reservations now for the Lobster and Prime Rib specials at Windsor Park. Because prices like this won't last. (If the cows come home.)

We talked about some good times and cried ourselves some tears . . .

Still crazy after all these years.
